CONTRACT AWARDED

GLENDALE MAN TO BUILD CITY HALL AT TROPICO—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

E. D. Yard, 127 North Maryland avenue, Glendale, was low bidder and was awarded a contract at $7976 for the erection complete of the proposed city hall at Tropico in accordance with plans and specifications by Architect C. C. Rittenhouse, 400 Washington building, Los Angeles. The bids were as follows: E. D. Yard, $7976; A. W. Ausen, $7600 (not including plumbing and heating); May Brothers, $7993; J. J. Burke, $8000; Houghton & Anderson, $8071; C. E. Lybarger, $8466; Thos. H. Addison, $8670; Pac. Home Builders, $8687; Martin & St. Onge, $8750; Robt. P. McMullen, $8774; Kling Co., $8792. The structure will be two stories and will contain council chambers, offices for city clerk and other city officials, library and quarters for the fire department. Dimensions, 50x62 feet. Concrete foundation, ruffled brick facing, composition roof, pine trim and floors, gas floor furnaces, reinforced concrete vault, plumbing, electric wiring.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H. Berteaux and son, Herbert Berteaux, who left ten days ago on a three months' camping trip to Yosemite valley, will be pleased to learn that word has been received from these two campers announcing that last Wednesday they were camping on the banks of the river Rincon in the vicinity of Carpentaria. They report a most delightful trip thus far and are traveling so leisurely that they are not fatigued.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Tropico is arranging to give an unique entertainment, a penny arcade, Tuesday evening in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore will contribute to the program by rendering several of her inimitable child dialect readings.

Word has been received from Thos. Gillette and Eugene H. Imler, who have been camping in Big Rock canyon, 125 miles from here, that they have had excellent success as fishermen. One day's catch resulted in Mr. Gillette securing fifty and Mr. Imler thirty-two of fine speckled mountain trout.

Mrs. James L. Fishback and her mother, Mrs. Mary Nisbet, who is spending the summer with her daughter, leave for Long Beach the first of the week, where they will spend a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lockjar of Salt Lake City, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hibbert for several weeks, have returned to their home in Utah.

Mrs. Eva M. Blain of Los Angeles, a former resident of Tropico, will be the over-Sunday guest of Miss Mattie Bardwell of Glendale avenue.

KELEHERS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Keleher and little daughter Geraldine of 228 North Louise street have returned from a delightful outing at San Diego and Coronado Beach, where they were guests at the U. S. Grant and Del Coronado hotels. Enroute home Mr. and Mrs. Keleher and daughter motored to Alamitos Bay, where they joined a jolly house party given in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jack, a recent Los Angeles bride and groom.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Keleher entertained informally in their home as a courtesy to Mr. J. S. Magee, who is here from San Francisco and as usual a very delightful time was enjoyed.

ANNUAL PICNIC

The annual picnic of the Ladies' Aid Society and the Loyal Women's class of the Central Christian church will be held at Echo park all day Tuesday, July 21st. A picture of the members will be taken at 11 o'clock sharp, and a basket luncheon will be enjoyed at noon.

THE ONLY WAY

Let us all pull together. We are all here for the same purpose. Then live and let live. The best way to build up a town is for each and every man to pull together and not strive to rend and tear down. All the residents of a town are like partners, not opponents. In all likelihood, the more business done by your rival, the more you will do. Every merchant who treats his customers honestly and fairly will get his share and the more business that can be secured for any business man in our town the better it will be for it.

AT THE CHURCHES

SERMON TOPICS AND SOCIETY SUBJECTS IN GLENDALE TOMORROW

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in the Masonic temple Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject Sunday, July 19th, "Life." Sunday school at 9:30. Wednesday evening at 8:00. Reading-room, 415 1/2 South Brand boulevard, open daily except Sundays and holidays from 12 m. to 4 p. m.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The pastor's subject Sunday morning will be "Heavenly Citizenship." The evening topic to be discussed is "Whatsoever a Man Soweth, That Shall He Also Reap."

Mr. Francis has almost entirely recovered from his affliction of poison oak, but will beware of that pest in the future, because he had a serious time with it.

The men's class is preparing a lecture for Wednesday evening of next week, which will be among the season's choicest offerings in instruction, and to which both men and women will be invited. It will be announced fully tomorrow and in the papers next week. Look for it and begin to arrange to be there sure.

The Bible school hour is 9:30, not 9:45. Please get this in your head right. Christian Endeavor hour is 6:45 during the summer months.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service the pastor will preach on "The Kingdom of Heaven in the Gospels," continuing the series that he began early in the season. Rev. Troy returns from his vacation invigorated and hopes to meet all of his parishioners who were unable to be present last Sunday.

The evening theme is "What Next?" The preliminary exercises will be conducted by Mr. A. L. Chandler. Brother Chandler and his father and mother are reckoned among the old citizens of Tropico, having come to California eleven years ago. He is a leading member of the local Carpenters' Union. He has been a Christian forty years and is now a working member of the First Baptist church of Glendale.

B. Y. P. U. at 6:45, led by Miss Amy Blanchard. Subject, "Faithfulness in Little Things."

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

Pacific avenue and West Fifth street. H. Jackson Hartsell, pastor. 9:45—Sunday school. J. E. Henderson, superintendent.

11:00—Morning worship. Subject, "Great Facts Which Make Silence and Non-aggressiveness an Impossibility for an Individual or a Church."

12:00—Class meeting. J. W. Durham, leader.

6:45—Epworth League meeting. Dr. Wilson M. Moore, president. Subject, "The Song-Bursts of Spiritual Women." Led by Mrs. Ida Wood.

7:45—Evening worship. Subject, "The Sin of Looking-Glass Religion." The prayer meeting next Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock will be led by Mrs. Albert D. Reynolds. The Wednesday evening services are very largely attended and great spiritual blessings have come to all who have not forsaken the assembling of themselves together.

The communion service last Sunday morning was the greatest service ever witnessed in the history of the church. It is all the more remarkable, coming at this time when many are away on their vacations.

ST. MARK'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Corner Fifth and Louise streets. The Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D., rector. Early communion, 7:30 a. m. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon, 11 a. m.

Dr. Mills will deliver the sermon at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles, Sunday evening.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Two important services are to be held, a missionary service at 11:00 o'clock and a temperance meeting at 7:45 o'clock. Dr. Margaret Lewis, a medical missionary of India, will

THE ONLY SOLUTION

WHY MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP OF LOCAL WATER SYSTEM—SOME REASONS

Because it is a first-class business proposition.

Because it gives the city a monopoly on a prime necessity.

Because this monopoly is necessary to financial success if the city goes into the business now or hereafter.

Because all of the companies are now on a paying basis. Hence, there is scarcely a remote possibility that taxpayers will have to pay a dollar of the bonds that will be issued to purchase them.

Because the water obtained is ample for the present, and development will begin without delay.

Water obtained by the city is as follows:

Canyon gravity flow.....	37 inches
Consolidated Co. well.....	48 inches
Verdugo P. & R. well.....	12 inches
Total.....	97 inches

The output of the last named well can be doubled.

Here then are the 90 inches of water that the opponents of the proposition say is needed now.

But note this: The city will acquire in getting the first item of real estate described in the railroad commission's report, an acre of land near the Gai winery in the Los Angeles river bottom, upon which is located a well (abandoned a few years ago as not being needed), from which 100 inches of water can be pumped. This will minister to the preference expressed by opponents of the measure who wish to pump water up hill rather than allow it to run down by gravity.

The supply of water in Verdugo canyon shows no sign of diminishing, neither does the flow in the wells. There is more water flowing in the canyon stream now (about 250 ins.) than at this season for twenty years past. Neither has the stream developed by the uncompleted bed-rock dam diminished since development, although showing some variations.

The alternative of this proposition is Owens river water (of doubtful quality), at a greater cost for a distributing system alone, expense to every property owner for new connections and competition with existing systems, which will eliminate any possibility of a profitable business.

J. C. SHERER.

GLENDALE TENNIS CHAMPIONS

CINCINNATI, O., July 17.—Nat Brown of Glendale, Cal., defeated R. A. Holden, Jr., of Cincinnati here today in the fourth and deciding match of the fifth round of the men's singles for the Clay court tennis cup. Three matches were played yesterday and the fourth was stopped by rain. The scores were 6-2, 2-6, 6-4.

The other match in the fifth round of the singles was won by Clarence Griffin of San Francisco, who defeated Claude Wayne 6-4, 6-0, 6-5. In the finals tomorrow Griffin will meet the winner of the match between Brown and Elio Fottrell of San Francisco.

In the ladies' doubles, Miss Mary Brown of Glendale and Mrs. Robert Williams, also of California, defeated Miss Smith and Miss Burton of Cincinnati in two straight sets, 6-3 and 6-1.

ONE WEEK MORE TO REGISTER

Those who have not qualified to vote in the forthcoming state primaries by registering, have only one week more in which to redeem themselves, unless they wish to be debarred from the privilege of participating in this election. Everyone eligible to vote should register and see that all legal requirements are met so that the ballot may be cast at the August primaries.

It would seem that everyone ought to be familiar with the necessity of fulfilling his or her civic obligations, but in this busy age the question must be brought before the people time after time before they finally rise to their full opportunity. Some, sad to say, procrastinate until it is too late and ignore their duty and privilege entirely.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Case have returned from a splendid fortnight at Forest Home, where they more than enjoyed every minute of outdoor life at that beautiful resort. This afternoon Mrs. Case is entertaining with a children's party at the family home, 105 North Maryland avenue, the affair being given in celebration of the fifth birthday of her pretty little daughter Beatrice.

GLENDALE'S PROGRESS

PERMITS FOR BUILDINGS STILL CONTINUE TO BE ISSUED REGULARLY

Glendale's building activity is forging right ahead. A few days ago we published a list of the building permits issued since July 1, and today we are pleased to note additional permits issued by Building Inspector J. M. Banker within the past few days:

A. J. Ballinger of 341 Brand boulevard has secured a permit to build a $4500 dwelling. Chas. Kent & Son are the contractors.

Philip W. Parker, Broadway and Central, has taken out a permit to build a $2500 dwelling. D. A. Lane is the contractor.

M. W. Chandler of 903 Brand has a permit for building a $3500 dwelling.

G. Johnson, 1470 Salem street, has taken out a permit to put up a $2000 dwelling. G. W. Calkins is the contractor.

G. H. Hunter of 1461 West Sixth street has a permit for building a dwelling to cost $1500. He will do the building himself.

Excavations are rapidly progressing on Brand boulevard for the $30,000 building to be erected there for theater purposes.

THE QUESTION IS WATER

Poor Pat was sick with the fever. He lay in bed, flat on his back, from the effects of six long wakes, rolling and tumbling from one side to the other, speechless and immovable, and all his cry was, "Wather! Wather! Wather!"

In the case of Glendale it is six long years, and more, and no solution yet. Our question is, how shall Glendale get plenty of good water at the most reasonable price? What are the facts? There have been many meetings and must be more. It is generally agreed that we have good water, but that it is not adequate because of not being developed. It is around us, but is not reached. How shall we reach it? Sometimes there is plenty and too much, and then not enough because it runs away to the sea. Of course water and all liquids run in and to the lowest places. There is where we must find and whence we must get it. All seem to agree that municipal ownership is what we must have. The lowest places are in Verdugo canyon, in wells, in Sycamore canyon, in the Los Angeles river and in the bottom of this valley under this city. All must combine on a general proposition covering all the facts in order to succeed rightly. We must plan and act together.

First, vote for the water bonds, and secure and develop the water supply we now have to full capacity.

Second, make a reservoir in Sycamore canyon, and so add to the supply we have for irrigation and fire protection, etc.

Next, find the highest point in the city and put down an artesian well—to where there is plenty of water below. The geological formation is such that doubtless there is plenty of water to be had if Glendale will take the proper steps to develop it, that will be abundant and permanent.

Probably a flow may be secured. If not, we can pump it. We cannot live without water and must have it, but if we do the above, we will not have to go to Los Angeles for it.

REV. A. B. SMART.

START FLOOD CONTROL WORK

Fourteen survey parties are busy this week under the county board of engineers on the work of mapping the county for flood control measures. Between 1500 and 2000 square miles of territory will be gone over, and six months will be required to complete the survey.

Los Angeles county has over 500 miles of waterways, 200 miles of which will probably come under the survey of the engineering board as being in the dangerous class. Last year, according to the preliminary report of the board of engineers, the flood damage within the county, physical and otherwise, totaled $10,000,000. Considerable of this damage was forecast from experiences of previous years and a large portion was unexpected, the result of the carving of new beds by streams, or their diversion by impediments.

PIRTLE DID NOT SIGN

I have noticed that my name is published in the Evening News as favoring the water bonds. I never authorized my name to be published in the list.—John A. Pirtle.

Mr. Pirtle is not fighting the bonds, but does not care to have his name connected with the affair.

TUESDAY ELECTION DAY

EVERY CITIZEN SHOULD EXPRESS DESIRE AS REGARDS ISSUING OF BONDS

Next Tuesday is the day that citizens of Glendale have an opportunity of voting for or against issuing bonds for the purchase of the four Glendale water systems. While there is a difference of opinion as to what is for the best interests of the city, the arguments on the question are carried on in a very intelligent manner.

The old-time way of saying mean things about opponents is not engaged in now. Logical argument lies at the foundation of discussion now. The sensible man is always ready to listen to argument. The old way of claiming that city officials, local papers and certain favored ones are for a proposition because their bread and butter to some extent depend upon conditions has no bearing now among men of reputable character.

It is only the man of the ward politician stripe who is continually imagining that a newspaper editor is void of principle, and will not take a decided stand on a question unless he can see financial gain coming from it.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mrs. William Alston of 1652 Ruth street returned home Friday after spending a most delightful week with relatives in Hollywood. Mrs. Alston also had the pleasure of a coast trip to Santa Barbara with Miss Serena Scott of Creston, Iowa, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Barkley Lyon of Sunset boulevard. The party stopped at the Hotel Arlington while in Santa Barbara, enjoying an extensive drive to the Mission and Montecito; also other points of interest while there.

Services at the Casa Verdugo M. E. church for July 19th will be as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Subject, "Is Prayer Effective?" Junior League, 3 p. m. Senior Epworth League, 6:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. Topic, "The Broad and Narrow Ways." Special music will be rendered at the above services and a cordial welcome is extended to all to attend. M. K. Stone, pastor.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph Brown will regret to learn that he is suffering from a severe accident, the result of falling from a ladder, causing him to fracture his kneecap. The injury is very serious and the probabilities are that Mr. Brown will be laid up for some time.

The many friends of our popular young friend, Miss Barbara Mitchell of Kenneth road, will be very happy to hear that she is having a most delightful time. At present the young lady is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fryer of North Pacific avenue have with them at the present time their little grandson, Master Lloyd Fryer of 141 Howard street, who just loves to stay with grandma.

Mr. James M. Chowell, who has occupied a residence on North Louise street for the past year, has leased the E. B. Davis property, 1018 Dryden street, and will take possession at once.

Mr. Fred Ballerino of North Hoover street, Los Angeles, was a North Glendale visitor Friday, calling upon Mrs. John Murphy and family of 1648 Ruth street.

MRS. L. H. HYER HOME

Mrs. L. H. Hyer, who has been spending considerable time with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Perry of Los Angeles, who is very seriously ill, has returned to her home at 333 S. Louise, bringing with her her little granddaughter. Miss Helen Perry of Los Angeles is also a guest of Mrs. Hyer.

FOOTHILL CLUB MEETS

MRS. A. F. PRIEST IS HOSTESS TO CLUB MEMBERSHIP ON FRIDAY

With Mrs. Alfred F. Priest as their hostess, members of the Foothill club enjoyed a very delightful afternoon Friday in the Priest home, 1442 N. Central avenue.

The early afternoon was spent at games, indoors, where roses that blended from pink into white were used for decorative purposes. Mat-laja poppies, whose huge shaggy heads drooped far over the edge of their tall containers, were also effectively introduced here and there.

Mrs. Charles H. Toll secured the handsome prize awarded the victorious in a clever "tree romance" contest, after which the hostess led her guests out on the veranda where small flower-centered tables set with a dainty afternoon luncheon awaited the attack of the enemy, as it were.

Besides Mrs. J. E. Bassett, a new club member, and Mrs. H. W. Peterson and Miss Bertha Peterson, both of whom as special guests assisted their sister, Mrs. Priest, during the afternoon, those present were: Mrs. W. C. Thompson, Mrs. N. C. Kelley, Mrs. Richard Plister, Mrs. J. McMillan, Mrs. William Stone, Mrs. Elliott Wyman, Mrs. Charles Richter, Mrs. Fred S. Wheeler, Mrs. George Holman, Mrs. J. C. Penn, Mrs. Julius Kranz, Mrs. Everette K. Barnes, Mrs. George Barnes, Mrs. Andrew Robertson, Mrs. J. Walter Elliott, Mrs. William S. Porter, Mrs. Alex Mitchell, Mrs. L. D. Oliver and Mrs. F. W. Pigg.

Mrs. J. Walter Elliott will be the next hostess, entertaining the club in her home, 1005 North Central avenue, Friday afternoon, August 21st.

AT LA RAMADA

Tuesday, July 21, the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold their all-day meeting at La Ramada, beginning at 10:30. The young ladies of the church and Sabbath school are the invited guests of the society that day. Mrs. Marshall Hayes of Pasadena, who is Presbyterian secretary for Westminster chapters and young ladies' societies, is to be present and speak to the young ladies. Lunch will be served at noon under the trees at this historic place. Members of the missionary society will bring box lunch for two. Bring no dishes.

FEW PRISCILLA MEMBERS LEFT

The glowing days of summer were more than evidenced at Friday's meeting of the Priscilla Club, for instead of the usual number (eight), only three members were present at the delightful little luncheon and Kensington given in the home of Mrs. Arthur Chapman, 1463 Salem street. The table was centered with bright centered daisies and after the daintily served meal had been disposed of, the hostess and her two guests withdrew to a cool, shady nook in the garden, where the afternoon was industriously spent.

OUR LAW

One of our citizens, who is disgusted with what he terms the chaotic condition of the "darn fool" laws of California, gets it out of his system something like this: "Our law is of such an uninteresting and complicated nature that nobody ever finds out anything about it until he actually has to. It is of such an inconsistent and vague nature that one can always find a law on his side if he looks long enough. It follows that ignorance of our law is so dense that the cost of dispelling it makes litigants tremble."

"If the law were anything like what it ought to be in a civilized community, there would be no necessity of having so many books and so many court officials and so many lawyers and so many judges and so many expert witnesses and so many everything that makes the whole business a mystic, musty haze. A simple dispute could be simply settled. But as it is, one man, being ignorant of the law, hires a lawyer, who is also ignorant of the law, to pursue another man, who, knowing no law, can defend himself only by hiring another lawyer. Then, after the whole thing is gone over with sufficient detail to prove to the judge that the law permits him to decide in favor of either litigant, he hands down his decision in accordance with the state of his own feelings or previous condition of political servitude."

Mrs. Kersishian and son Richard, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Lauler of 1431 Burchett street, have gone to Elsinore for a few days.

FLEETS WITHOUT LIQUOR

Officers as well as men of the crews of United States naval vessels are now subject to rules forbidding the use of liquor. Cartoonists and photographers have had their sport, and for naught. Organs of the liquor trade and journals hospitable to its advertisements have thundered about sumptuary legislation and democracy's repudiation of Jeffersonian principals, but in vain. The other stands because the navy's expert adviser says it shall, and also, we believe, because public opinion approves. Only sober men can properly be entrusted with command and operation of modern naval craft. Only sober men are desired as representatives of the United States when the ships touch at the ports of other countries. To be fraternal and to be convivial are not synonymous; good fellowship is to be had without libation.—Christian Science Monitor.

Personal abuse is the weakest political argument that can be made.

CANADA'S GREAT AUTOMOBILE ROAD ACROSS CONTINENT

There is projected and under way, with promise of completion within the next two or three years, a highway across the Dominion of Canada. At a very considerable distance to the north—a distance, however, not much greater than that which separated the first Pacific railways of the two nations a few years ago—it will parallel the Lincoln memorial highway in the United States. Like its neighbor to the south of the line, it will be about 3000 miles in length, and it will offer to the tourist the same variety of scenery between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Yet there will be enough difference between Quebec and Ontario and New England and the Allegheny slope, between the middle and trans-Missouri West and the Selkirk and the Rocky mountains and Sierra Nevadas, between the valleys of the Sacramento and the upper Columbia, to make the round trip over the two routes well worth while.

Fifty years ago serious doubt existed in the thoughts of well-informed people with regard to the availability of building a railroad from the Missouri river to San Francisco. Serious doubt exists today as to the advisability of constructing trans-continental highways. Roughly speaking, there is now a dozen railroads connecting the older states and provinces with the Pacific! It is not unreasonable to expect that within another half century there will be as many automobile highways across the same territory.

There is no longer an unbroken expanse of desert; the plains, prairies and mountain sides are peopled. Villages, towns and cities punctuate the entire stretch from the Red river and the Missouri river to the western sea. Within a few years, in all probability, the initial highways will be as inadequate to the proper handling of the traffic that will crowd upon them as would be the initial Pacific railways today if they stood alone.

SHOULD BE ACTIVE

Action, applied to the small town dealer, means essentially that he should be active and up-to-date in his business methods. He should advertise. He should be painstaking and anxious to please his customers.

The result following the practice of such methods, while it may not be startling, will be certain. Mail order houses know, only too well, the results of properly placed advertising and of courteous treatment of customers. Good customers patronize good stores and publicity concerning the home store's advantages will induce the desired class of people to trade there. On their continuing to buy their goods in the home town depends not only the prosperity of the town dealer, but also that of the town itself.

Several of New York's biggest stores will close all day Saturday during the summer. Good idea.

OPEN AIR MUSIC

It has often been said that the Americans are not a musical race. A city of 100,000 people has difficulty in maintaining an orchestra equal to what will be found in a German town of 10,000. But the enormous number of bands that perform outdoor music through the summer months suggests that there is a growing musical feeling.

Good band music is by no means confined to city parks and summer resorts. The smallest country town may have its "band boys," whose more or less amateurish tootings stir the cross-roads heart and feet. The country band often does good work. It has time to practice. A familiar evening sound is some instrument echoing across the empty acres in preparation for next concert night.

In large towns band concert night is about the most typical festival occasion of our hurrying American life. Ball games and horse races and athletic meets have the note of competition and miss the festival spirit. The cattle show has much of that atmosphere, but is at least theoretically an industrial and business gathering.

At the band concert the Americans cast aside the stress of the game and for once meet for pure enjoyment. There is always a disagreement as to what class of music a band should play. Some demand airs reminiscent of old scenes. Others want banging Sousa marches. Still others call for the poetry and fire of the classics. The wise bandmaster, of course, tries to please all tastes.

Music that has the quality of permanence is more apt to build up a support of real music lovers. If a composition has been handed down from one generation to another, or has the qualities that will hand it down, it must have a keener appeal to the human heart than something tossed off by the ballad singers of yesterday to be thrown in the waste basket tomorrow.

GLENDALE MEN AND WOMEN WHO STAND FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

So intensely interested are many of the citizens of Glendale in municipal ownership of water, that they have expressed themselves as approving of it in the following manner:

We, the undersigned citizens of Glendale, believe that the next step in the development of our city is the establishment of a municipal water plant, and we heartily endorse the proposition of issuing municipal bonds to the extent of $248,000 for the purpose of purchasing the present water plants, improving and extending them to meet our present and immediate future needs.

As we are now compelled by law to pay all the expenses of the water companies, as well as a handsome profit, we believe it is to our interest to own the systems, pay the necessary expenses, and put the profits into better service and lower rates. We will support the proposition at the polls July 21, 1914.

What Is Aerated Milk

Aerated Milk is milk which is cooled to a low temperature directly after being taken from the cows.

Unless milk is thus cooled, bacteria will quickly form, causing the milk to become unsanitary and particularly dangerous for the use of invalids and babies.

YOUR HEALTH

DEMANDS LIGHTER DIET DURING THE SUMMER

Meat and heavy foods have their place, of course, but they should be eaten sparingly in hot weather. Too much heavy food will cause sour stomach and bring on indigestion.

There is more discomfort caused in summer from overeating, or the use of improper foods, than from all other causes combined. This statement is made advisedly, and we believe most physicians will bear us out in it.

The remedy is to select lighter foods, things that are more easily and quickly digested. You don't build fires in the furnace in hot weather, why make a furnace of your stomach?

You've probably heard of "FORCE," the scientifically prepared ready-to-serve breakfast food. Well, "FORCE" is no more nor less than whole wheat blended with barley malt, then rolled, toasted and flaked. "FORCE" furnishes all the nutriment necessary for building and sustaining the human body. It nourishes without stimulating; it is delicious and easily digested. "FORCE"—whole wheat—builds bone, muscle and nerve; it is the one "perfectly balanced" breakfast food. Get it at your grocer's.

Los Angeles has more telephones, per capita, than any other city.

EASILY EXPLAINED
"How does it happen," asked the teacher to the new pupil, "that your name is Allen and your mother's name is Brown?"
"Well," explained the small boy, after a moment's thought, "you see, she married again and I didn't."—Exchange.

HARD TO BREAK A HABIT
The customer in the grocery store, having ruined his clothes, was hopping mad.
"Didn't you see that sign, 'Fresh Paint?'" asked the grocer.
"Of course I did," snapped the customer, "but I've seen so many signs hung up here announcing something fresh that wasn't that I didn't believe it."—Boston Transcript.

MRS. ROOT'S POULTRY YARDS

The following from Pacific Poultrycraft will be of interest to readers of The News:

Mrs. Root began her present work with poultry over seven years ago, when, as an invalid, she was seeking health. She helped her mother with chickens when a girl on a South Dakota farm, as initial experience. She began later on a small town lot, and gained experience with a dozen and a half Single Comb Black Minorcas on suggestion of a friend, who recommended the breed very highly, because of its splendid laying qualities and being easily tamed. After these seven years of constant experience with Minorcas, and during which time she has tried out six other breeds at various times alongside of the Minorcas, she confesses to thinking them the best all-around bird for this particular part of the country. She has at present 250 mature birds and over 600 youngsters on over two acres of ground, where they are combining fruit with poultry. They have carried twenty-two breeding pens all this season; have hatched over 3300 baby chicks, selling most of them at two and three days of age. Have filled a great many orders for Minorca hatching eggs from single settings to lots of five hundred.

She has had four years with White Holland turkeys, besides what she had when a girl. For the past two years business has required the carrying of four or five fine breeding pens, comprising from thirty to forty mature breeders from three different strains of turkeys; some of the males attaining a weight of from thirty-six to thirty-eight pounds, the females from sixteen to eighteen pounds; has always won a prize on every turkey exhibited at shows. She recently furnished nearly two hundred White Holland turkey eggs for hatching purposes to one of the largest Bronze turkey breeders on the Pacific coast.

She has shipped eggs and stock to all parts of California, Arizona, Oregon, Washington, and has also filled orders from Utah, New York, Hawaii, Mexico and British Columbia.

The manager of Cyphers' Incubator company, to whom two trios of turkeys were shipped this spring, wrote that they "were much pleased with the birds." Turkeys and turkey eggs have been shipped to Hawaii and arrived in good condition. Government experiment station, Honolulu, in correspondence with her for some weeks past, have looked up her stock—Black Minorcas—and write thus: "Am satisfied your stock is first class and expect to place an order with you as soon as I can hear from customers on other islands."

Besides stock, has a $1500 equipment, including open front laying and breeding houses, large yards, green most of the year, brooder house, lighted with electricity, etc. Seven up-to-date incubators—Cyphers and Jubilees—capacity about 1600 eggs, also brooding arrangements for handling 1100 chicks at a time. She grows mangels, beets, kale, lettuce, barley, alfalfa, sweet corn, in yards and runs for chickens and turkeys besides a large clover lawn. Last March she installed 250 pigeons, Homers and Carneaux, and will combine commercial and breeding of stock.

Mrs. Root keeps a careful record of each pen, or yard, and is very systematic in her work. We are fortunate in having her as one of our regular contributors, as her articles are all written from actual practical experience and should prove helpful to every poultry breeder. Mrs. Root is a student of poultry breeding, and is always digging into the whys and wherefores of the business, and success has crowned her efforts in the poultry business.

It will pay you to visit this ranch which is located at 735 Verdugo road, Glendale, California. The place is just south of Sixth street, first house on the right. You will be welcome any day except Sunday. A visit will convince you that a woman can make a success of the poultry business and when you know that it has been only four years in coming up to its present high standard, with its fine equipment and splendid stock—we doff our hat to a WOMAN.

SKY DEFENSES

And now the aeroplane having shown its merit as a war engine, the nations must put up shields against it. Great Britain is first, its government having decided to dot the coasts of the British Isles with towers armed with guns particularly designed to cripple the war birds.

England, once happy in the belief of her impregnability, has only recently awakened to a sense of her own weakness. She has discovered in her own sham conflicts that while she may be right, she is far from tight. And some of her neighbor nations are showing all the symptoms of war-itch. All these neighbors have flocks of aeroplanes and dirigible balloons. Germany has 375 planes to England's 180, while France has 550, Russia 315, Italy 270 and Austria 220.

The English imagination has dwelt so long on the Kaiser's flock of airships that the towers will bring a certain psychological relief, if nothing more. They should, of course, be of real use in defending a naval station like Portsmouth.

NORTHERN BANKS FOR SOUTH AMERICA

A few months ago La Nacion, one of the prominent newspapers of Buenos Ayres, deplored the fact that financial interests in the United States continued negligent in grasping opportunities in South America through their failure to establish branch banks in the leading capitals. Criticism was especially directed against one institution which, after making a preliminary survey of the southern situation, it was said, apparently did not care to enter upon an enterprise which other nations, with surplus capital at their command, engaged in years ago to their evident benefit. La Nacion caustically remarked that now or never was the moment for the United States to show its interest in South America since, according to this newspaper, such banks were absolutely essential to the continuation of a policy of trade expansion.

Announcement just made by the board of directors of the National City Bank of New York, through the president, Frank A. Vanderlip, brings the pleasant surprise that United States banks after all have not been caught napping, but that, on the contrary, the great financial institution merely awaited the organization of the federal reserve board in order to apply for permission to open a branch not only in Buenos Ayres, but also in Rio de Janeiro. Before the coming of the new currency law such branch banks in other countries were not allowed. The National City Bank could scarcely have moved faster than it did in making its application, and it may be taken as certain that its requests will be granted forthwith.

It is an almost foregone conclusion that the establishment of branch banks in Argentina and Brazil, under United States direction, will go a long way toward putting northern manufacturers upon a basis of equality with those of other great exporting countries in the matter of credit facilities and credit information. When Morgan Shuster, one time fiscal adviser to the Shah of Persia, undertook to investigate southern conditions for the New York banking house, he was accompanied by R. O. Bailey, at one time associated with the treasury department at Washington. Mr. Bailey is now instructed to again proceed to South America and to arrange for the speedy putting into effect of the plans promulgated for the furtherance of trade between the United States, Argentina and Brazil. His tour ought to interest everyone acquainted with the great possibilities within these progressive nations.

DON'T SNAPSHOT UNCLE SAM

The indictment of the editor of Sunset magazine, a magazine writer, an aviator and a photographer for the part they played in making and publishing a photograph of the fortifications of the Panama canal promises to be followed by a most interesting trial. The prominence of all the indicted men, and the fact that the secretary of war is said to be committed to the policy of prosecuting them to the full extent of the law, has created a great deal of interest in their arrest.—California Outlook.

Seal Beach

Two great expositions will bring hundreds of thousands of people to California next year. Los Angeles is the main entrance of both expositions. Hundreds upon hundreds of people have been waiting for the exposition year to come to California to live. A whole new city—from 75,000 to 100,000 people—will move to Los Angeles next year to live here permanently. Beach property is scarce now and will be even scarcer then. Present prices justify good profits then. Buy now for profit insured by the growth of Los Angeles and the scarcity of beach property. Seal Beach is the safest beach in the world—absolutely no undertow. GOOD LOTS $500 NEAR THE SPRAY.
